

SUMMER SCHOOL

Blended Intensive Program

13th to 17th April 2026

VIRTUAL PART

30th March 2026

We are delighted to invite you to participate in the Blended Intensive Programme (BIP) titled "From Forests to Wildlife: Bioeconomy and Climate Adaptation in Practice", organized by the Faculty of Forestry and Wood Sciences, Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, from 13th to 17th April 2026.

This exciting programme is open to both bachelor's and master's students who are eager to explore and address key topics in wildlife management, forestry, and bioeconomy.

Programme:

DAY 1 | Monday 13th April | KOSTELEČ NAD ČERNÝMI LESY

- Welcome and Introduction
- Workshop: Bioeconomy in the Czech Republic
- Visit to the Arboretum
- Lecture: Forestry in the Czech Republic – Adaptation of Forests to Climate Change

DAY 2 | Tuesday 14th April | ŽIDLOV AND BOHEMIAN SWITZERLAND NATIONAL PARK

- Field Excursion: Enclosure Židlov – Wildlife Management
- Field Excursion: Bohemian Switzerland National Park

DAY 3 | Wednesday 15th April | PLZEŇ (PILSEN)

- Excursion: Sofronka Arboretum
- Cultural Visit: Pilsner Urquell Brewery Tour

DAY 4 | Thursday 16th April | KRKONOŠE NATIONAL PARK (GIANT MOUNTAINS)

- Hike to Sněžka – the highest peak in Czechia

DAY 5 | Friday 17th April | PRAGUE

- Campus Tour
- Visit to the Laboratories of the Department of Wood Processing and Biomaterials
- Demonstration: Deployment of Multi-Tasking Technologies in Forestry

